Wisconsin's energy bill assistance program

If low-to-moderate income households are having difficulty paying their bills, they should apply for WHEAP assistance as soon as possible to avoid a possible disconnection.

WHEAP can help eligible households reduce their heating and non-heating electric bills and may also provide additional help with past due amounts they owe.

Customers can conveniently apply for WHEAP online at <https://energybenefit.wi.gov/>, by phone via 1-800-506-5596, or by contacting their local WHEAP agency.

If they're unsure how to contact their local agency, they can call 1-866-432-8947 or access the Where to Apply map via <http://homeenergyplus.wi.gov/>
