NATURAL GAS PRICE ALERT

Natural gas prices are at a 14-year high and are expected to remain at these levels, and possibly higher, at least through spring of 2023. Since the beginning of March, the market price of natural gas has risen about 90%, and about tripled since June of last year. There are many factors contributing to the increase, including both domestic and geopolitical factors. These price increases will have a significant impact on our gas rates for the foreseeable future. Budget customers can expect to see a significant increase in their monthly budget amounts beginning with their next bill. To limit the impact to your business or household budgets, we strongly urge everyone to consider ways that you can reduce your energy use.

Residential customers who need help paying their gas bills can contact the following resources: Contact WHEAP online at <https://energybenefit.wi.gov/> or call 1.800.506.5596. you can also call your local WHEAP agency at 715.265.4271. There's also a new program for Wisconsin residents. Help for Homeowners at HomeownerHelp.WI.gov or call 1.855.2HOMEWI to learn more.

Your monthly bills for the next Budget Year will be calculated soon

The Budget Plan for each customer choosing this option will be recalculated in July. Your new Budget payment will appear on your next bill, mailed at the beginning of August. Budgets are calculated based on usage and forecasted prices for natural gas.
